HAMSHIR & MOSSER, Prop'trs.
DIRECTOR, ILLINOIS

Entered at the Post Office of Decatur, Illinois, second class mail matter.

MONDAY EVE., AUGUST 18, 1889.

Mr. P. H. BREWER, of Decatur, received notice Saturday of his appointment as Chief of the Appointee of Division in the office of First Assistant Postmaster General. Clarkson, at a day of $2,000 per annum.

NORTH DAKOTA who came into our tariff, its first birthright of its convention, declared in its platform that it is "uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of post roads." This doesn't appear to be very much more than about that.

It is said that President Harrison's rapidity in making his anti-slavery resolution quite remarkable. The present Administration is present in nothing to compare with it in fact, except the failure of Col. Clarkson in getting the Democratic postmaster.

The first news in the Circuit came to-day will be a motion upon the part of the defense, to try the defendant separately. The prosecution will call the motion, claiming that they are indicted for conspiracy, they ought to be tried together as such. Attorney Long makes no objection to this. The attorney for the defense says he has come to receive a letter from the friends for the state which says they are compounding not less than $10,000.

Death of Henry Shaw.

Hon. Henry Shaw of St. Louis, after whom Shaw's Guide is named, died in his home in that city on Sunday morning, at a very early age. He was a bachelor, and very wealthy. He gave Shaw's Guide to the editor of "The Sun" and Shaw's Guide to the city of St. Louis.

What Is Doubtful?

Reverend Mr. C. A. W. Taylor of Illinois, who is a member of Congress from the district with the exception of Louisiana, is to speak on the congressional platform in the third district of this state. He is expected to make one or two speeches before the election, which will occur on the 3rd of November. It would be a number of other men who take part in the course. He did not go south of New Orleans, excepting to the Gulf of Mexico, but comes to the parishioners in the heart of the sugar section. He might as well be left to himself, and if he does, he will be hourly counted. Mr. Howell thinks that an appeal to the public interest of the people will result in the election of the Republican candidate.

Why won't he? He gets a policy to send a dozen of his friends over from the North to the district to remain through the election. The election is suspended, and the voter could be spared from the uncertainty. If they are on the side, and they can, for their seven hours, elect him, he is elected in Tommorrow, but then they would learn in my other way. They would be able to see them, too, with their election in the South, and they would be in the North, in the Presidential race. There is no better plan than to drown and bury the election in the crowd.

DISCOVERED IN BOSTON.—A new thing in Boston, I think, is the coming of the Louisiana to the platform of the congressional candidates in the third district of this state. He is expected to make one or two speeches before the election, which will occur on the 3rd of November. It would be a number of other men who take part in the course. He did not go south of New Orleans, excepting to the Gulf of Mexico, but comes to the parishioners in the heart of the sugar section. THE CIRCUS DAY.

PHOENIX SHOW IN THE CITY.—A great crowd in Town.

Circus as well filled with visitors to-day, in honor of the Wallace V. C. circus and menagerie, filled to溢 at the half-past afternoon and evening. It was a great day of amusement and business. The circus was crowded with patrons.

The opening street parade was one of the handsomest ever seen in Decatur. It was highly complimented by the passing of the people.

The horses, and a splendid appearance, leaving, however, all that Mr. Willis Cobb, the president had promised it. It was a grand treat.

This afternoon the tents were crowded with people to witness the first performance. The menagerie itself of a high character and the many novel acts, now and again. The during intermission performance of the Fife and Drum Corps, the motor oil, entirely new, the timbrel in the mobile and horizontal, but acts were all of a high character. The menagerie was made up of good specimens, and the animals were fit for the keeping, thus leaving in the average traveling show.

Mr. Will Cobb, president of the circus, in addition to a number of his wife, was a wide acquaintance with the features.

He was a good specimen, and looked after the menagerie and comfort, leaving to them comfort and convenience. A fine man as a reporter had the pleasure of meeting him and found him a most pleasant companion.

The concert at the conclusion of the regular performances was worth the time and effort.

The ballroom will soon be ready for the opening, which will be in a few days.

A FATAL JUMP.

Mrs. Richard Tilton Meets Death in a Runaway Accident.

Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock there was a fatal runaway accident within two miles of Forsyth, the victim being the mother of the Tilton family, Mrs. Mary Tilton, aged 46 years, wife of Richard Tilton, a teamster residing at Forsyth. The team is the property of Howard Irvin, son-in-law of Mrs. Tilton. Mr. Irvin hitched up his team to a farm wagon, and with his wife and 7 children, and Mrs. Tilton started for the home of George Craig, 8½ miles distant on a visit. Mrs. Tilton had her 7 month old grandchild in her arms, and the party had gone two miles on their journey, when suddenly the team took flight at a full gallop in the roadway. The team started on a run, and Mrs. Tilton became so alarmed that she jumped out of the wagon with the child in her arms. The baby escaped unharmed by the fall, but Mrs. Tilton was so badly injured on the head that she died at 5:30 o'clock this morning. The team was stopped after a short run. No one was hurt. Mrs. Tilton was attended by Dr. Drury, of Forsyth and Dr. W. J. Choneweth, but nothing could be done for her as she never regained consciousness. The funeral will take place at 9 a.m. Tuesday, burial at Marcus.

Mr. P. H. Burdick, of Des Moines, received notice Saturday last from appointment of Oliver of the Appointment Division in the office of First Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson, of a salary of $2,000 per annum.

North Dakota who came home on the tariff, in his first Republican state convention declaiming in its platform that it is "incongruously in favor of the American system of protection." These doesn't appear to be any mention found about that.

It is said that President Harrison's rapidity in closing hands with callousness is somewhat quite remarkable. The present Administration probably nothing to compare with it, in fact, except the facility of Col. Clarkson in deputizing Democratic politicians.

The first move in the Crown case trial will be a motion, upon the part of the defense, to try the defendants separately. The prosecution will recuse the motion, claiming that as they are indicted for conspiracy they ought to be tried together, as State Attorneys Longmire expects they will be. The attorneys for the defense on Tuesday evening received a list of the witnesses for the state, which is very lengthy one, comprising not less than 150 names.

Death of Henry Shaw.

Hon. Henry Shaw, of St. Louis, after whom Shaw's Garden was named, died at his home in that city on Sunday evening, at a very great age. He was a bachelor, and very wealthy. He gave Shaw's Garden to the state of Missouri, and Tower Grove Park to the city of St. Louis.

What is the Trouble?

Rec'd. Dr. Andrew J. Webster, of Illinois, was concerned in having been appointed deputy Fourth Auditor, and a man of that name was even on hand before his death. And now the Fourth Auditor is in receipt of a letter from another man of that name, a resident of Illinois, who says he has been in a Chicago paper notice of his appointment as deputy Fourth Auditor, and "accepts the same with thanks." So there are two patriotic gentlemen who evidently believe they have both been appointed, but the trouble is that only one of them can draw the salary. However, that is a small matter, as the humor and fun they are after.

Gong to Louisa.

Hon. J. H. Bowles, member of Congress from Decatur, died the evening for Louisiana, to take part in the congressional caucus in the third district of this state. He expects to make five or six speeches before the election, which will occur on Tuesday of next week. Several other members of congress will also take part in the caucus. The district lies south of New Orleans, extending to the Gulf of Mexico, and comprises twelve parishes in the heart of the sugar section. By right it would be Republican, and will be if the vote comes out and is honestly counted. Mr. Bowles thinks that an appeal to the business interests of the people will put in the election of the Republican candidate.

Why would it be good policy to send a dozen or twenty members of congress from the North to the election to remain through the election? The election is so close, and the results could be spared from their own districts. If they are on the ground, they can see for themselves how elections are conducted in Louisiana, better than they could learn in any other way. They would be able to see for themselves whether elections in the South are free and fair as in the North, as the Democrats love to boast. There is no better plan than to go down and study this situation, on the ground.

Discoveries and inventions are so new thing in Boston. Breathing the cool wind as its people do, they seem to imbibe the inspiration which creeps out in new and useful inventions, to the further glory of the invincible Yankee nation. And now we find, in an illustration of the truthfulness of old Gold, saying that "there is nothing new under the sun," that a Boston genius has evolved from his inner consciousness an entirely new and nutritious beverage, one that will cheer but not irritate, one that is in the nature of brain food as well as stomach food, a veritable brain cocktail. We are told that the hint of the new some of the popular Boston fruit was not meant exhausted when the glass of inked beans were first discovered. Can no capacious never before dreamt of in the festive beer, and a bumper to the out a cocktail department will be no exception. Live in beer!

THE BRAVE SIXTY-THIRD.

Close of the Reunion—Reception—
Soror by Rev. C. T. Phillips.

The reunion of the 63d Illinois, which closed on Saturday in a blaze of enthusiasm and good feeling, was supplemented by an entertainment given on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Maris in compliment to the Woolly Brothers quartette, which so highly entertained the veterans by their singing during the reunion. A few friends had been invited in, and a few of the veterans who remained over and those with the quartette were entertained in a most enjoyable fashion. There was instrumental music by Miss Emily Hanmer, and vocal selections by Miss Lizzie Kieper, while the famed quartette sang some of their choice gems. Refreshments were served during the evening, and at a reasonable hour the guests separated with many compliments to Mr. and Mrs. Maris for their charming entertainment.

A CROWDED CHURCH.

Sunday morning Rev. C. T. Phillips, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Belleville, who went through the war as private in Co. 1, 63d Illinois Regiment, occupied the pulpit at the First M. E. church, and was greeted by a congregation which completely filled the large auditorium, all comrades of the 63d remaining in the city attending the service. Fragmented flowers decked the platform, and in the choir loft was the Woolly Brothers Quartette, who sang sweetly. Miss Maggie Woolly giving a solo with charming effect. Rev. Phillips delivered an sermon in the nature of an exhortation, taking for his text the third verse of the third chapter of 1. John "And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure." It was a sermon full of brotherly love, and was fitting close to the routine of the regiment in which the young elegy now had done his brave part in defending the Union and stripe.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Saturday in business session the 63d adopted the following resolution by a voting vote:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Association are hourly tendered the Woolly Brothers for the very great pleasure their music has given us. Much as that man was given to me before his death, and was a fitting close to the routine of the regiment in which the young elegy now had done his brave part in defending the Union and stripe.

FATAL PLAY.

Two Little Girls Who Didn't Know Any More Than Ordinary Doctors.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The shooting of the two little girls, who were playing in a doorway, has been fully explained. The two girls, who had been playing in a doorway, had been shot by a man who had been previously accused by the Government. The bullet will remain in the girl until she is removed by the surgeon.

The girls were playing in a doorway, and the bullet passed through the door, hitting the girl in the shoulder.
